Dear Marilyn,

I'm sorry to be so late in responding to your last letter. I am just now finalizing plans for a trip to the Midwest this fall. My staff has been in touch with Professor Shumaker saying I do intend to accept and am looking at 7 October or 11 November. As the trip is shaping up, I should be responding to him shortly to propose 11 November. I am certainly looking forward to speaking at De Pauw and presenting the other side of the coin you mentioned.

Thank you for the kind offer for me to stay with you and Norm. I'm afraid, though, the way the trip is shaping up I won't be able to spend the night in Greencastle.

In any event, I am certainly looking forward to seeing you and want to thank you again for your note.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Mrs. Norman J. Knights
